Dear Friends,

For over 27 years, Christian families have given us many underachieving students with high I.Q.'s, good parental background, and strong leadership ability. The Lord is good to us, and we continually thank Him for all our students, staff, and parents. All of our students have great potential for the Lord.

In May, 21 seniors graduated during a stunning celebration at New Horizons Academy in Marion, Indiana. Having mended broken family relationships, these students are now enrolled in colleges and holding down jobs. They are becoming men of honor and women of modesty, the way God desires them to be!

In June, Missanabie Woods Academy was filled to capacity as 50 summer campers experienced spiritual, physical, emotional, and social growth. This was our first summer to lose a student in the woods. We prayed a lot for Lewis's safety and well being but we still could not find him. After 15 hours, he was finally found in a newly built shelter having followed our training to "be prepared." Needless to say, we were all very happy.

In July, Phil Redwine returned to his position as school director at Escuela Caribe after living in the United States for a year. During that time he began his doctoral program, while his wife, Debbie earned her Bachelor's Degree in Spanish. It is good to have them back, and we are so thankful to Bruce and Marilyn Holder for taking care of Escuela Caribe in their absence.

What new Horizons is really about is showing love and concern toward each other using the Matthew 18 principle as God lights each part of our lives. This book shows this very well.

As I reflected upon the summer of 98 at Missanabie Woods Academy, I again find myself saying, "To God be the glory!" It is interesting that in the midst of the action on any given day at camp, we only see what is taking place in front of our eyes. This is exciting in and of itself, but it all takes on a new depth of excitement, when I see how God has worked through all that action to affect lives long after the dust has settled. When I look at these pictures of lives and action I think about the total experience of Missanabi. What more can I say other than all praise and glory belongs to our Heavenly Father who has given us sons and daughters, families, and unique growing experiences such as the camp of 1998.

NEW HORIZONS ACADEMY

The 1997/1998 school year at New Horizons Academy was a good one. During this year NHA was "home" to at least 90 students — some for just a short time before transferring to MWA or CVS, and others for much longer. It is my hope and prayer that each person's life was impacted positively during their time with NHA.

Spiritually many students turned their lives over to Christ and many staff were renewed in their faith, oftentimes assisted by retreats, spiritual emphasis weeks, staff/student discipleship times, and numerous other activities.

I was impressed by the efforts of staff and students alike in the sports program that we ran: basketball, cross-country, soccer, volleyball and softball. The annual housetrips were reported by staff and students alike in fun terms.

In the months and years to come, as we look back on this season in our lives, let us remember the challenges and opportunities, the growth that we collectively and individually made, and the promises and hope we have through our faith in Jesus Christ. Best wishes to all.

Escuela Caribe

What an incredible responsibility and privilege to be the interim director of Escuela Caribe! Marilyn and I last served at Caribe Vista Schools in May of 1992. May of 1997 saw us return but with two children and one on the way. Not only had CVS changed, but we had changed!

This past year was a challenging opportunity to step into Phil Redwine's shoes and run the school during his sabbatical. I Thessalonians 5:12 gave us the comfort that we needed during the trials, tribulations, and triumphs of the year. "Faithful is He who calls you, and He also will bring it to pass".

It is our desire that the pictures included bring back meaningful memories that can be cherished and shared. For you, character building in the Dominican Republic will now take on new meaning. As you reflect on Pico, work week, sweep out, beach freedays, Jose's fry stand, and others, may you also recall with fondness the Bible memory verses, house devotions, Christmas caroling to Dominicans, and decisions made during spiritual retreats. "Being confident of this, that He who began a good work in you will carry it to completion until the day of Christ Jesus" (Philippians 1:6). May God's blessing be upon you.

Sincerely,

Bruce Holder and Family

Georges' Destruction

One page of pictures does not tell the story of Georges' devastation in the Dominican Republic. In this collection of photos one gets a quick glance at destruction and recovery. The students and staff of Escuela Caribe had the privilege of helping the citizens of Jarabacoa rebuild their homes and lives.

The campus itself received minor damages to roofs, but in town the waters raged. Many homes along the river were flooded or swept away. Homes had mud over three feet deep inside.

The hurricane of 1998 will always be remember for its great impact in the Dominican Republic and Escuela Caribe.
